In a few years doing the RTR's daily has drained the enemy thought form down drastically to the point of almost nothing. This enemy energy form has been running for centuries and has been empowered daily by hundreds of million to billions of people. Our RTR's have got to the point they materialize right away into the world. That is only from a small number of people doing them daily for only a few years. This is because the enemy god form is drastically weakened by the RTR's already. A small number of people in a few years vs billions of people for centuries. That is TOTAL WIN!!!!

Think about what the Final RTR is doing to them and will do to them being done daily. Its erasing their entire "god" from existence and with that their entire global empire is falling apart its all built on this god form they created. Their god is the word and the word is their god right in the opening line of their Torah and the word in their Torah is the 22 letters of the Hebrew alphabet their god is the 22 letters of the Hebrew alphabet that is why their call their god Hashem meaning the name....its chanted as the 22 letters in Judaism. Their empire is falling like all Mordor fell when the one ring was thrown into the fires of mount doom. What else perished with the one ring....Golem.

With the total and eternal collapse of the enemy false god. And with doing the Final RTR daily your removing all the curses and bindings from yourself and the astral grid around the planet. Which means your own spiritual practices and magical workings will become powerful and be able to manifest totally as well. The jews place the 22 letters of their false god on the symbol of the tree of life which is a stolen map of the human soul. The ten worlds are the three upper worlds the three main parts and energy points of the brain and the seven other worlds are based on the seven planets and the seven chakra's. An example of the three upper worlds Uranus is the higher octave of mercury which rules the pineal gland and telepathic abilities and such. All the Hebrew 22 letters are placed on the pathways in combinations to bind the Gentile soul. This is why people are all reporting doing the Final RTR daily is opening their soul drastically. Its removing the bindings and also allowing for years of power meditations to shine thought fully. The Final RTR is a form of daily power meditation and a needed must to achieve full transformation of the soul.

The Final RTR do it daily.

No in the end the jews have words upon words of power in Hebrew to curse the Gentile soul in many different ways. However they are all made out of the 22 letters so this removes everything. The whole torah is one big curse itself upon Gentiles and its thousands of words long. But its thousands of different combinations of the 22 letters.

Tolkien I don't think really put any Xian elements in his Lord of the Rings, he was good friends with C.S Lewis and even brought him into Xianity. However Tolkien criticized Lewis for putting Xian elements into his fantasy tales. Tolkien I think was more of a Pagan then a Xian and his Xianity was more cultural of the time. He was obviously most interested in Paganism as he chose to become a professor in that subject over a Priest.

Even his perceived Xian elements really come to be a type of Zoroastrian mythos. He has a pantheon of Gods not a single monotheistic god. In fact it was Sauron that tried to introduce the monotheism. Note with the fall of Numenor it was the Numenorian who remained true to the Gods that were spared and moved to middle earth. This is the other part of Atlantis. Tolkien also put totally racist elements in his story he comments on the quality of blood of the Gondorians and their aristocracy and the problem of the mixing of superior blood with lower quality people there is lot of racial imagery the superior humans have the most Numenorian blood. The superior lines of the humans all come from the union of Elven blood with the highest human types. The Elven Race is perfected and immortal with Siddhi powers they are like Gods and live with the Gods in Valinor for the most part. This was the ancient Aryans in the Golden age. The human is the second age like a silver age with Numeror that arises after the first age and the war against Melkor in which the Gods themselves come from Valinor to destroy Melkor. And this second age is led by the superior half Elven half human lines. The returned King of Gondor also marries the Elven women who is the daughter of Elrond the brother of the King who founded the line of Numenor. Elrond who chooses to become full Elven instead of half divine human. The worst crime of the Elf's in the first age was the Kin slaying and it was caused by greed the entire first age becomes the war of the Jewel. Its the same attitude that destroyed this age of the Elven in middle earth that leds to the fall of Numenor in the next age the revolt against the Gods and the spiritual teachings of Sanatana Dharma. Sauron is the embodiment of the Asura.....Sauron.....Asaura... Asur is also Asaur or Asaura in Sanskrit.

I doubt it the only state that might make that threat would be California and they can barely survive as it is. That sad State should be a lesson when Jewish Leftist elites run a place totally they run it into the ground.

But youve also said that we will win in our lifetimes. That sounds like we would win maybe in 10-50 years. But when the Enemy thoughtform is almost nothing, isnt it the same as were almost winning this war?

We are winning battles after very long of people doing nothing against the enemy. We are winning everyday more and more.

But are we done with this? Hell no. Are we close to final victory? Hell no, if one is being honest.

All that is said is that we are winning, not that we have won. "When" is not a matter in question either. One would lie in full if they said they know when this is 'over'.

Also, our meaning of over is strict.

I did state in the past it might take a century to clean up the environment and totally heal the planet and the people on it from centuries of enemy pollution. But that is after we win. Cleaning the ocean's, reforesting the planet, turning barren sand regions into grass lands and forrests, cleaning the soil of all the toxin's, dealing with the waste dumps and nuclear pollution and such takes time.

You have this habit of assigning statements and claims to people out of context. I have mentioned this to you before you need to stop and think before you do this its confusing to people. Or provide context and a link otherwise its the telephone game and that is how confusion arises.
